

MOTHER'S MILK: THE STORY OF LA LECHE LEAGUE

Please join founders and board members of La Leche League at the opening reception for the Special Collections exhibit, Mother's Milk: The Story of La Leche League. The exhibit features materials from the organization's archives, which are available for research in DePaul's Special Collections and Archives Department. La Leche League is an international organization offering help and support to breastfeeding mothers since 1956.

2:30-4pm, November 3, 2011

Special Collections and Archives, Room 314,

Richardson Library, DePaul University

For maps and parking information: <http://directory.depaul.edu/maps/default.aspx>

For more information, please call 773-325-7864 or email archives@depaul.edu

Exhibit on display in Special Collections through December 2011